

3.

(c) The Director of Central Intelligence shall act for the National Security Council, with the advice of the IAC, to insure full and proper implementation of council directives by issuing such DCI directives as may be required, etc.

4. ~~xxxxx~~. In so far as practicable, he shall not duplicate the intelligence activities ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxx~~.

5. The Director of Central Intelligence shall disseminate such National Intelligence, as the Central Intelligence Agency may produce as provided herein.

a. Dissemination shall be to the President, members of the National Security Council, intelligence chiefs of the IAC agencies and to such other governmental departments and agencies as the National Security Council may from time to time designate. National Intelligence so disseminated shall be officially concurred in by the intelligence agencies or shall carry an agreed statement of substantial dissent.

b. Further, where security regulations of the contributing agency or sources permit, the Director of Central Intelligence shall disseminate to other departments or agencies intelligence or intelligence information which he may possess, when he deems such dissemination appropriate to their functions relating to the national security.

6. The Director of Central Intelligence shall perform for the benefit of the existing intelligence agencies such services of common concern to these agencies as the Director of Central Intelligence, in agreement with the IAC, determines can be more efficiently performed centrally; provided, that the Director of Central Intelligence shall perform such other functions and duties related to intelligence affecting the national security as the National Security Council may from time to time direct.

b. Under pertinent security regulations, the intelligence files in each intelligence organization, including the CIA, shall also be made freely available to the other intelligence organizations for consultation, as appropriate to their respective responsibilities.
